Gadeir—

In responding to your Motion to Compel, it has come to our attention that you have still not yet officially requested from TSA the access to the SSI information that you seek in your motion, as per the reminder email we most recently sent in back in January, below.

Although we continue to oppose your motion in full and do not concede any aspect of it, we would be willing to send you the TSA instructions for accessing SSI if a reasonable number of Plaintiffs' counsel are seeking clearance. Please let us know who, exactly, on your team will be requesting clearance and we can get those instructions to you.

Thanks.

Subject: RE: request for SSI clearances

Gadeir, per my previous email on this subject (attached), you need to request, in writing, access to specific SSI. This doesn't need to be exceedingly formal, but please indicate who is requesting access and to what SSI and why. This could be as simple as attaching the privilege logs, identifying documents, and explaining why you have substantial need. Please list the specific individuals who need access as well.

Again, I know we disagree on what documents the Government can withhold, but in the interests of advancing this litigation, I urge you to consider narrowing your request to documents you actually need to litigate the case.

Thanks,

Amy
